After a careful investigation of the facts, we are satisfied that there was no foundation for these charges. They were not made with the sanction of the managers of the paper, who would never have permitted them to be published if called to their attention before publication.

Feeling convinced that a great injustice and wrong was done Mr. Fuller, the Alta, desiring to be just always, cheerfally makes this retraction and hopes that the press of the State will give Mr. Fuller the full benefit of it, and that notwith standing his misfortunes he will have a successful and useful career.

TOM BAILEY'S CASE.

Superior Judge Murphy yesterday afternoon charged the jury in the case of Thos. Bailey, who has been on trial for several days past for an as-sault alleged to have been committed in February last upon an old woman named Jane Lane in the lower part of the city at No. 17 Frederick street. The Court covered the law in the case and instructed the jury upon how they should view the testimony in strict accordance with the rules laid down in the Codes and free their minds at once from all considerations of sympathy. He deemed it a duty of theirs as sworn jurors to protect the community from such outrages, if an outrage had been proven committed in this case. With a brief resume of the circumstances the Court gave the issue to the jury for its careful consideration. Robert Ferral, attorney for the defendant, asked the Judge to add a certain instruction to the charge, but his Honor overruled this. The counsel then took a general exception to the charge. The jury retired at 2:45 P. M. to the jury room for deliberation. lower part of the city at No. 17 Frederick street.

The alleged assault was testified to have been made by six young roughs, two of whom have since escaped from the State. Those arrested with Bailey were Charles Prince, Godfrey Halley and Tom McMillan. Bailey was released on bonds, but had since been again taken into custody for alleged crimes of robbery and larceny. One of his crimes is that of recently enatching a purse from a womau on Third street. All of these cases against him and his pals will be made separate issues in the Court.

against him and his pais will be made separate issues in the Court.

The jury, after a lock-up of five hours, reported at 8 o'clock last evening their inability to agree upon a verdict. They were accordingly discharged. It is understood that on the last ballot the jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquital.

He alleges in the complaint that, on the 11th of June, Sundy caused his arrest on a charge of obtaining $150 under false pretenses. Towards morning Lee missed a purse and $180, and reported to the officers that Ward had taken it from him. Ward was found in the Hotel Rhein and taken into custody. He stated in the Police Court that he had taken charge of Lee's purse for the purpose of paying for a room for him.

THE STOWAWAYS.

Judge Hoffman in Great Measure Recants His Hasty Tirade.

STATEMENT BY THE COLLECTOR,

A Breezy Letter From the Surveyor of the Port, Which Scores the Federal Courts for NullHying the Restriction Act.

Judge Hoffman's somewhat sensational arraignment of the Customs officials last Wednesday has roven somewhat of a boomerang, and in a meas-re the Judge yesterday retracted his, to say the east, ill-advised remarks in regard to the conduct f Collector Hager and Surveyor Tinnin. When the United States District Court opened yesterday norning Assistant District Attorney Cook addressed the Bench as follows: "In the discussion that emanated yesterday in regard to certain Chinese cases, it seems to have been stated that the statements taken on the steamer by the Custom House were received by Mr. Hilborn, the United States Attorney, from Mr. Kip, were locked up in his drawer and could not be found when the cases his drawer and could not be found when the cases came up, and were sent back to the Collector's office yesterday afternoon. The fact is those statements were never in the possession of the United States Attorney at any stage of the proceeding. If they were left in the Court-room by Mr. Kip they were taken away by the other interpreter, who happened to have been in the Court-room when the Court adjourned the evening before. If they are now in the possession of the Custom House they were returned by one of their own officials.'

were returned by one of their own officials."

DISTRICT ATIONNEY AND INTERPRETER.

Speaking in regard to the statements Mr. Kip, an interpreter, said: "I never got any certificates or statements from Mr. Hilborn. I was ordered to give them to him. I did so, and called his attention to the 'Court number' of the cases. I gave them to him in the Court-room.

District Attorney Hilborn replied: "They must have been taken away by some other Custom House officer, and the fact that they have found their way into the Custom House without being received by me shows that they were taken by some other Custom House officer. The fact remains they were not in my possession and never have been, any more than any other paper produced here in Court, and were never taken out of the Court-room by me."

Mr. Kip—Mr. Fogarty or the Surveyor sent for me, telling me there were five stowaways. They were examined by me in the presence of Surveyor Tinnin, Mr. Fogarty and Mr. Bryan, the agent of the steamship company, and Mr. Mo-Sweeny, a special deputy. They stated facts which are in those statements. I attended very attentively to the cases when they came up. I saw those stowaways in the Court-room and recognized them. As the City of Peking was going away on Tneeday, there was a great deal of registration to be done before the sailing of the steamer. My duties compelled me to be there, and I told Mr. Tinnin it would be impossible for me to watch the cases, but I would be ready to come and testify when I was notified. I handed the statements to Mr. Hilborn, thinking that when the cases came up I would be notified. I do not know where the statements went to after I delivered them.

Mr. Hilborn—A large number of these statements were lying on the table in the Court-room. All the papers were turned over to Mr. Rickards, who was the custodian of them from the Custom House. They were never taken by me to my office. Mr. Rickards took them away with him and did not bring them back on Tuesday. When it is stated that these papers were locked up in were over they were returned by me to Mr. Kip, it is not true. If Mr. Kip has given them to Mr. Fogarty, he got them from the custody of some person in the Custom House and not from me.

WHAT THE JUDGE SAID. At this point Judge Hoffman took a hand in the conversation and said: "It is very much to be regretted that from any cause these people have been discharged if, as I am given to understand, they made statements and admissions on board the steamer which would have shown they had no possible right to land. The accident has occurred, I am quite sure, without any intention on the part of any one of defeating justice. In some way these statements were not forthcoming. It is very difficult for the United States Attorney, when there are thirty or forty cases, to know the merits of every case unless he is advised by the Custom House. It case unless he is advised by the Custom House. It is, of course, very difficult also for the Custom House officers, with their other duties, to be perpetually in attendance, watching these cases. An accident has unfortunately occurred, but I do not see that there is any reason for recriminations between the officers. I desire to enforce, as far as I can, the necessity of the Custom House officers being here, because we are helpless without them. As far as Mr. Tinnin is concerned, I did not in the slightest degree intend to reflect on his zeal, integrity or efficiency in the discharge of his duties. It is very inconvenient for them to be in attendance, but I did think that, knowing these cases were set down for hearing, somebody ought to have been here. Between the two offices in some way the mistake has occurred."

Mr. Ricketts, a lawyer, then made an explana-tion in regard to his connection with the stewaway COLLECTOR HAGER. Yesterday afternoon Collector Hager furnished to the press a written statement relative to the whole subject of the stowaways. The Collector's statement is as follows: "The law requires I should notify the District Attorney of violations of the revenue laws. When this notification is made the case is with him and under his direction. If he wants any witnesses or papers from the Castom wants any witnesses or papers from the Castom wants any witnesses or papers from the Castom House he gives notice or serves a subpcena, and they are sent. In these Chinese cases, about which there has been so much misrepresentation, the facts are as follows: August 3, 1886, Mr. Tinnin sent me this note:

Hon. John S. Hager, Collector of the Port of San Francisco—Sis: I respectfully report that the follow-ing named Chinese persons arrived at this port on the 17th day of July, 1886, on board the steamship Belgic, to-wit:

That said persons were found to be stowaways on said vessel, and were detained on board the same;
That the United States Bistrict Court issued its writs of habeas corpus and landed said persons at San Francisco. Respectfully submitted,
(Signed,)
W. J. TINNIN, Surveyor.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY NOTIFIED. "On August 5th I conveyed this information to District Attorney Hilborn, as follows:

District Attorney Hilborn, as follows:

Hon. S. G. Hilborn, United States Attorney, San-Francisco: Sire-You are respectfully advised that the following Chinese persons arrived at this port per steamer City of Peking, July 28, 1886, viz:

JNO. S. HAGER, Collector.

"This is the ordinary practice, and has been followed since I have been in office. When I have given this information the case belongs to the District Attorney and the District Court, and my duties are ended.

THE COURT REBUKED. "On August 10th I received the following from Surveyor Tinnin:

Surveyor Tinnin:

Surveyon's Office, August 10, 1886.

Hon. John S. Hager, Collector of the Port of San Francisco—Sin: I respectfully report that the steamship Eeigle arrived at this port from Hongkong the 17th day of July, 1886.

That within three pays after her arrival here, and after all her Chinese passengers who were entitled to land had been put sehore, I caused said vessel to be searched for stowaways.

That I found five Chinese persons who were concelled and were stowaways on said vessel; that all of said persons were then and there examined separately as to how they got on board said vessel at Hongkong, and as to the manner in which they come to the United States.

Each of them acknowledged that he had been smuggled on board the vessel by some of the Chinese crew; that each of them had made a contract with some of the crew, whereby it was agreed that the crew were to be paid in sums of money from $150 to $160 each for the landing of said stowaways at San Francisco; that some of said sums had been paid, and that other portions were guaranteed to said crew by the friends of said stowaways.

Each of said stowaways acknowledged that he had never been in the United States; that he knew that he had no right to land here, that of the money paid and agreed to be paid $50 were for the passage over on the steamship, and the $100 and over were for landing illegally.

That the said vessel sailed from this port on the 30th day of July, 1836; that just before the departure of said vessel, the United States District Court issued its writs of habeas corpus and landed three of said stowaways at San Francisco.

other stowaway will solve be laked on the same of some other ground.

That said Court is continually landing at this port Chinese persons who come here in transif for Honolulu, Panama, Victoria and other foreign ports on the ground of previous residence in the United States, when the said persons, while on board the vessel and before they have had any communication with the Chinese on shore, acknowledge that they have never been in the United States.

Said books are written in the Chinese Six Companies. Said books are written in the Six Companies. W. J. TINNIN, Surveyor.

"I am also informed that the papers in these stowaway cases were delivered to District Attorney Hilborn and were in his custody when they came up for hearing before Judge Hoffman.

An Off Day with the Bay District Associa-The attendance at the Bay District Track yesterday was the smallest of any day's trotting yet held, and the cause was probably the fact that Gus Wilkes was considered to have a sure thing for the 40-class purse, and there was no other event on the card. What little betting there was was at the rate of $25 for Wilkes to $6 for Merchant and $5 for Hidalgo and Bay Rose combined, and in the nutual box, where the betting was on heats, Wilkes mutual box, where the betting was on heats, Wilkes had a slight call on the field. When the bell tapped for the first heat Hidalgo, at the pole, had considerably the best of the send-off, but was pushed considerably by Merchant from the outside as Lee Shaner sent him across the track in front of Bay Rose and Gus Wilkes. At the quarter Hidalgo had a lead of two lengths over Merchant and the latter had as much call over Wilkes, while Rose was a long way in the rear. Passing the half, Hidalgo made a damaging break, Merchant passing him and the favorite getting up on even terms. From this on Wilkes had an easy game. The moment he approached getting up on even terms. From this on Wilkes had an easy game. The moment he approached Merchant the latter went high into the air, and Wilkes jogged under the wire four lengths ahead of Hidalgo, in 2:28. Bay Rose was last.

No pools were sold before the second heat. After much scoring the quartette were sent away with Merchant in the rear, but he struck out at a 20 gait, and rounded the tern on even terms with Hidalgo and Wilkes. The favorite started to open up a gap down the back stretch, but broke near the half, and Merchant led into the turn by four lengths. Entering the home stretch he went all to pieces, and Wilkes won as before, Hidalgo second, and Bay Rose third. Time, 2:30.

The third and final heat was also trotted in 2:30, Hidalgo leading around to the half, where Wilkes went to the front and jogged home as he liked. Merchant behaved badly over the first half of the course, and was beaten for third place by Bay Rose.

Bay Rose.

Admirers of a closely-contested trotting race will be well satisfied with Manager Hinchman's programme this afternoon—the events announced taking in such good ones of the 2:24 class as B. B., Pansy, Dawn, Le Grange and Lucille. These goers ought to make it a lively affair, having such a fast track under them. The race is best three-infive to rule. in-five, to rule.

At Killip & Co.'s pool-rooms last evening there was the largest attendance of betting men of this season. Dawn was a strong favorite at the rate of $40 to $28 on B. B. and $18 for the others as a
